Gold purchase price: one gram of pure gold = 4.50 zlotys

* Drafts for services and maintenance costs

The bank also buys the following:

1. Damaged bank notes still suitable for purchase, and dollar bank notes issued before 1928, i.e., the so-called long bank notes, at rates 5 percent lower than ordinary exchange rates for bank notes.
2. Circulating silver money and small change, at rates 10 percent lower than for exchange of bank notes.

English pounds of denominations higher than one pound and foreign currency not included in the National Bank of Poland table will be accepted only for making payments.

The exchange rate table in the proclamation issued on 29 September 1951 (Monitor Polski, 20 October 1951) is hereby nullified as of 31 December 1951.
